

JILTED ON EVE OF WEDDING, GIRL DRINKS POISON

Annie Kushman Takes Chloroform When Sweetheart Phones Good-by.

A seventeen-year-old girl lies in the German Hospital, Williamsburg, to-day morning in an agony of body and mind and crying for her sweetheart. She is Annie Kushman, who took chloroform last night at the home of her employer, Marie Grossman, of No. 44 Knickerbocker avenue, Williamsburg, when told over the phone by the man to whom she was to have been married on Saturday that everything was over between them.

The girl, according to her story, came of a well-to-do family in Poland and her appearance and refined manner seemed to bear out this statement. Two years ago she fell in love with a young chap who was about to be drafted into service in the army. To avoid this he came to this country and she ran away from home and followed him. She engaged in domestic service when she found she could get nothing else to do. She has been assiduously courted by her sweetheart for two years.

Last night she was called to the telephone. Her sweetheart was on the other end of the phone. He was very brief in what he had to say.

"I have decided I can't marry you," he said. "It will be impossible. I am going to leave New York and you will never see me again."

The girl began to plead with him and ask for an explanation, but he hung up the phone. She ran to her room and drank the contents of a bottle of chloroform which she had on her bureau. Mr. Grossman found her in agony on the floor.

She was taken in an ambulance to the German Hospital, where the doctors said she would probably recover.

PAID BACK $10,000 FOR THE LOAN OF A DOLLAR BILL

Had Divine Command to Dispose of Wealth, Stranger Told Bayonne Man.

Arthur J. Mitchell, who is connected with the Leo Elastic Company of Bayonne, N. J., has just returned from Chicago, where he had a remarkable experience with a police stranger who seemed to be afflicted with a mania for disposing of his property. Mr. Mitchell brought with him a stock certificate for $10,000 in a tobacco company which had been given him by the man and which he proposed to return to the latter's relatives when he gets in touch with them.

Last Monday morning at the La Salle Hotel he met a mild-looking man of forty-five in the lobby who asked him for the loan of a dollar until the banks opened. He said his name was Col. C. L. Watson and he was an executive police about it that Mitchell passed over a bill without argument.

At a o'clock that afternoon just as Mr. Mitchell was about to "check out" of the hotel and hop into a waiting taxicab for the Union station, Col. Watson presented himself with a proffered bow and a dollar bill and a proffered bow and a dollar bill and a proffered bow and a dollar bill.

"I desire, sir," said the Colonel, "to return to you the money which you were kind enough to loan me, an utter stranger, and in appreciation of your aid permit me to give you a slight token of my esteem."

Mitchell opened the envelope and found it contained $10 in cash, a bank book showing deposits of several thousand dollars, besides a $10,000 stock certificate in the Long-Houston Florida Leaf Tobacco Company of Atlanta, Ga. He tried to give the envelope back, but the Colonel pushed him away.

"I'm commanded by the Lord," said he, "to dispose of all my property, or perish in everlasting hell fire."

Mitchell turned over the money and bank book to the hotel detective and got a receipt for them. He brought the stock certificate with him and is now trying to trace the relatives of Col. Watson.

PREVENTION OF CORNERS INVOLVED IN APPEAL

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Attorney-General Wickersham will appeal to the United States Supreme Court to sustain the "corner counts" in the Government's indictment of James A. Patten, Eugene C. Seales, Frank B. Hayes, William P. Brown and Robert M. Thompson, charged with leading the May cotton corner of 1910 on the New York Exchange.

Judge Noyes in the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York sustained all of the counts of the indictment except those charging a corner to fix the price of raw cotton. He condemned the practice unreservedly, but held it did not come within the jurisdiction of the law upon which the indictments were based. Attorney-General Wickersham's appeal is from that part of the decision.

Underlying the appeal is Attorney-General Wickersham's attempt to find a means to finally prevent the fixing of prices by speculation on exchanges of commodities in daily use by the people.

The Attorney-General made it plain to day that should the Supreme Court support the Department of Justice in its contentions, prosecutions would be immediately undertaken against the individuals of any combination, whether to buy or bear the price of a commodity.
